Tucker Sahnou, AAMS®, CPFA® Leaves Edward Jones to Join Independent Practice with Gateway Financial Partners

Scottsdale, AZ – Winthrop & Co. is proud to announce that Tucker Sahnou, AAMS®, CPFA® has officially joined Gateway Financial Partners, an independent branch of LPL Financial, to launch his new practice based in Scottsdale, Arizona.

After building a successful career at one of the country’s largest investment firms, Tucker recognized that to serve his clients the way he truly envisioned, he needed more flexibility and freedom. His move to Gateway Financial Partners marks the next chapter in a journey shaped by an early interest in financial stewardship, deep analytical experience, and a mission to empower others through clarity and personalized planning.

“Becoming independent wasn’t just about leaving the corporate world—it was about honoring my fiduciary duty and putting my clients first, always,” Tucker shared in a recent Gateway feature. “Now I have the ability to shape my practice around the lives and goals of the people I serve.”

Tucker specializes in comprehensive financial planning, investment management, retirement strategies, and risk management for individuals, families, and closely held businesses. His analytical background, shaped by analyst roles at multiple Fortune 500 companies, equips him to approach each client’s situation with both insight and intentionality.

At Gateway Financial Partners, Tucker found more than just a platform—he found a collaborative environment that values education, independence, and meaningful impact. His alignment with Gateway allows him to focus entirely on the client experience, backed by operational, marketing, and compliance support designed for scale.

Outside of his professional work, Tucker lives in Arizona with his wife, Camille. He enjoys golf, exploring the outdoors, cheering on his Oregon State Beavers, and serving in his local church community.

With the launch of his new independent practice, Tucker is now delivering the level of service and partnership he’s always envisioned—helping clients gain clarity, confidence, and control over their financial lives.
